

Spanish Red Wine Trophy for Mirto by Ramón Bilbao 2005 at the International Wine Challenge 2008

The annual gala IWC Awards dinner, that was held at the Grosvenor House in London last September 3rd, revealed the champions of the 2008, where Mirto by Ramón Bilbao 2005 received the Trophy in the Spanish Red Wine category.

Of the wines awarded gold medals a few wines have been elevated from gold medal to trophy status following a further rigorous blind tasting. This year only one national trophy was appointed in the red wine category.

The International Wine Challenge is the largest wine competition in the world, has celebrated its 25th anniversary. It is supported by the prestigious Wine Magazine that belongs to the William Reed Company

Mirto by Ramón Bilbao 2005 was served in the dinner that gathered over 600 guests from the global wine trade. This event is generally accepted as the “oscar” of the wine trade.

Charles Metcalfe hands the Trophy to Rodolfo Bastida, Managing Director of Ramón Bilbao Vinos y Viñedos & Head Winemaker